"I always tell people, take the number off the phone. I'm doing very well, and I'm doing very well for myself," the billionaire business magnate told Fox News. "Don't underestimate me. Don't underestimate anybody. Some of the things we're doing are unbelievable." Asked if he had a message for the entire press, Trump said, "Yeah, I do. And it's simple. 'Don't.'" The GOP front-runner also took aim at one of the "most dishonest" journalists during the recent Republican presidential debate -- CNBC's John Harwood. "He was incredible. Do you agree with me? It's really incredible," Trump said. "He's almost as bad as you people." Later, the real estate mogul also dismissed reporters as "naive" and "grasping." Trump added that he had respect for at least some reporters. "You know, I'm not necessarily that way, but I respect you people." How will you handle a hostile press, Mr. Trump? "I will be fair," he said. "I'll treat everybody fairly. But we're not going to be treated fairly if we're weak." "I have a message for all of the young people in the audience," Trump said. "People are grabbing what they can. They can't believe what's going on and how they're being f30f4ceada
