“With the help of ‘HyperMotion Technology,’ we believe FIFA 22 will provide the most authentic football experience ever delivered on console,” said Andreas Köpke, Head of Production at Electronic Arts. “The result: we’ve created a completely new and immersive football atmosphere.” FIFA 22 delivers new gameplay modes focused on tactical-driven gameplay rather than pure thrills. The player-determined tactics, which are generated based on the rules of the game, provide unique game experiences that cannot be recreated in any other title. The following new gameplay modes will be available in FIFA 22. New Replay Two new modes of gameplay are being introduced: New Replay and Playability. New Replay mode puts players in the chair of FIFA Director, as if they are the man-in-the-middle of a real game. The player is completely responsible for the outcome of the match, and he will make sure that goals are scored, he will decide how many seconds a player is given by the CPU for a bad touch, and how many fouls a player gets. With the help of a spectating crowd that watches the whole match from the sidelines, the player is able to make smart decisions on the pitch and make big plays by playing football. FIFA 22 Playability mode provides a dynamic experience every time the player plays. The CPU will make the game play according to the rules of the game. The player will be given the ball and he will decide how he wants to play. It’s up to him whether he wants to dribble, whether he prefers to use his pace and trickery, or whether he finds it more appropriate to play out from the back. Each decision will directly affect the outcome of the game. AI Scorekeepers FIFA 22 introduces two new AI Scorekeepers: intelligent and aggressive defenders with controlled, intelligent, and aggressive teammates. The AI Scorekeeper for the AI also enhances the defensive behavior of the team around him, which leads to more realistic AI behavior on defense. Leaderboard FIFA 22 introduces the Leaderboard mode, where players can compete against the AI and each other on a leaderboard. The leaderboard competition offers more replay and replay abilities to the player, making every game different than the last. Football Boots FIFA 22 introduces two new football boots, resulting in a more authentic experience. Players can choose their football boots at the
