Geo Urdu Movies.Multiple 1 million blood donations so far KANDAHAR, Afghanistan - Blood and plasma donations have been fast-tracked to support Afghan civilians wounded in a sophisticated Taliban attack on the city of Kunduz. Doctors say the siege of the northern city began on Friday, with foreign and Afghan troops battling the insurgents for control of the area. A joint Canadian/Afghan operation has now pushed the Taliban from areas north and south of the city, where they had been reinforcing their positions for a few days before the assault. As of Saturday, 1.02 million blood donations have been collected, with 1,300 plasma donations recorded. The blood centre has also recorded 3,500 blood donors since it reopened its doors earlier this week. Meanwhile, more than 1,100 Afghan civilians have been treated in the aftermath of the attack. The majority of the injured are women
